

Adult Program Trip— Read & Go

Beaufort, NC

Friday, May 31, 2019

Have you ever wished you could go to a fictional town in a book you read? Well now is your chance to visit “Peachtree Bluffs” from the book “Slightly South of Simple” by Kristy Woodson Harvey. We will be leaving from Anne Gordon Active Adult Center at Millbrook Exchange Park (1901 Spring Forest Road) at 8:00am.

Join us as we travel to Beaufort, NC. Kristy Woodson Harvey, the author of “Slightly South of Simple”, will be spending the day with us as we experience the charming town of “Peachtree Bluff” from the book and learn about the deep history of beautiful Beaufort, NC. The town will be transformed into “Peachtree Bluffs”. The quaint coastal town of Beaufort was established in 1709, but was originally a fishing village dating from the late 1600’s known as Fishtown. There will be a delicious group lunch by Turner Street Market, where the author will also talk with the group. The afternoon will include a guided group tour of the Beaufort Historic site and a guided bus tour of Beaufort including Kristy’s “Peachtree Bluff”. You will have the opportunity to tour the Maritime Museum or just shop and wander the downtown area. We will be outdoors a lot of the time that we are in Beaufort, so please dress appropriately and wear comfortable shoes for walking. There will be a rest stop in the morning and one on the way home. The group will arrive back at the Anne Gordon Center in Raleigh at approximately 8:00pm.

You must register by Tuesday, May 28, due to pre-ordering of lunch.
